“Building Bridges from High School to College”

Are you a graduating high school senior?

Will you be a new student at FC this Fall 2016 and are looking for a summer program to get you on track?

If so, you are invited to join ONE of the 2 summer programs below!

OR

Summer Bridge

Why Participate in the Summer Bridge Program?
- Receive essential supplies/materials for the academic school year
- Learn about educational planning & policies
- Meet faculty, staff, and other new students
- Learn from FC instructors how to become a successful college student
- And much more!!!
  - Dates: July 11 - 14, 2016
  - Time: 9:00am – 1:00pm
  - Days: Monday-Thursday (off Friday)

⇒ Must attend all 4 days to be eligible for the free FC backpack and supplies!

Summer Transition

This program is designed to ease graduating high school seniors’ transition to FC while completing 1 transferrable unit in 2 weeks.

Students will:
- Develop academic and survival skills necessary for college success
- A FC academic counselor will assist you with educational planning
- Build self-confidence needed for college success & career exploration
- Learn how to utilize campus resources & programs
  - Dates: July 12 - 21, 2016
  - Time: 9:00am – 11:50am
  - Days: Tuesdays & Thursdays

⇒ Students must enroll in COUN 144F (1 unit)

To enroll in ST, students need to attend an information session. Space is limited. See reverse side for information session dates and times.
